Mr. Allen Dulles

Washington, D.C.

Dear Allen,

Within ten days or two weeks my very good friend Dr. Yalman, publisher and Editor of a leading Turkish newspaper, VATAN, expects to be in Washington for a few days and would like to see you. He met you once some time ago but seems unsure that you would remember him. While I think it most unlikely that a meeting with him would ever be forgotten by anyone, I am giving him this note, at his request, to pass on to you when he arrives.

Quite on my own I will add that Dr. Yalman is a scholar, a courageous patriot and a very fine gentleman -- all of which qualities put him in your own class, so don't miss this chance to see him.

As ever,

Max

Dear Mr Dulles,
I had the pleasure to meet you in 1950 at a reception of the Council of Foreign Relations for the visiting Foreign Ad. Lord and discussed with you the problem of an early peace with Germany. I shall be very happy to see you again during my stay in Washington.
(To day).
Yours sincerely
A. E. Farman
